

LAST CHANCE OF STANDARD OIL

No Opposition to Certification of Certain Questions to U. S. Supreme Court.

DECISION THUS HASTENED

FINE OF $29,000,000 INVOLVED IN THE ISSUE.

Chicago, Jan. 15.—No contrary motions will be filed by the government against the petition for a certification of certain questions to the supreme court of the United States which attorneys for the Standard Oil company recently sent in to the United States circuit court of appeals here. This announcement was made to the latter tribunal today by Edwin W. Stiles, United States district attorney, who has just returned from a conference with Attorney General Bonaparte in Washington. The conclusion not to contest means that a final decision in the appeal from the $29,000,000 fine probably will be rendered by the supreme court of the United States. Attorneys for the oil company ask that their contention that the Elkins law was repealed by the passage of the Hepburn act be certified to the supreme court at once, so that it may be adjudicated in connection with a case involving the same point in which the Great Northern Railroad company is interested. If the contention is upheld, the decision would operate to invalidate not only the indictments upon which the fine was based, but all the large number of other indictments involving charges of receiving or giving rebates.

More Fines Coming Up.

Mr. Stiles announced after the court proceedings that it had been decided by himself and the attorney general that the remaining cases for alleged receipt of rebates against the Standard Oil company will be held for trial next week. The indictments in these additional cases contain more than 4,000 counts, and the district attorney pointed out that if maximum fines are assessed in each of these cases, the total of the penalties against the company will be increased by $80,000,000.

The cases will be reached on the calendar of the United States district court next week, and the district attorney plans to schedule immediate trials.

DISTURBED THE CONGREGATION

The person who disturbed the congregation last Sunday by coughing and sneezing is requested to buy a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar. F. J. Hill Drug Co., "The Never Substitutes."

IN POLICE CIRCLES.

Three Rio Grande firemen, who are accused of having scattered red pepper in the Lyric theatre on Sunday night for the purpose of enjoying the pleasure of seeing the audience sneeze, were arrested last night by Policemen Stains. They gave the names of W. E. Means, W. Helder and C. M. Dodds. It is alleged they played red pepper in their handkerchiefs, and by waving the linen surreptitiously, caused a wave of sneezing to sweep over the surrounding spectators.

A warrant was issued yesterday by Justice of the Peace Dana T. Smith for the arrest of Roy Rogers, who is accused of having carried off his belongings without settling his account with his landlady, Mrs. Oberg.

Thomas Papas was convicted in the police court yesterday of having attempted to pass a cancelled check for $22 at the store of Wolf & Levin. He was fined $75. As he could not pay the fine, he will have to serve seventy-five days with the chain gang.

Albert Bland, colored, was held under $250 bail by Justice of the Peace Smith yesterday for trial on the charge of burglary in the second degree. It is alleged that he broke into the home of J. H. Mulhollen & Sons, 229 East Third South street, on Jan. 14.

John Williams, who stole an overcoat from the Tribune composing room, was fined $25 by Police Judge Pien yesterday afternoon.

BREAKFAST AND GARDEN PARTY

American Admirals and Captains Entertained by President of Brazil.

Rio Janeiro, Jan. 15.—The president of the republic, Dr. Penna, entertained the admirals and some of the higher officials of the American fleet at a breakfast today at Petropolis. Later in the day there was a garden party at the American embassy in the same suburb. Though Rear Admiral Evans did not be present at these functions, the fleet was well represented by Admirals Thomas, Emery and Sperry, Captain Osterhaus of the flagship Connecticut, Captain Wainwright of the Louisiana, Captain Hubbard of the Minnesota, Captain McCrea of the Georgia and Captain Murdoch of the Rhode Island.

Breakfast at the Palace.

The breakfast of the president was given at the palace, which was beautifully decorated with flowers and greens and the Brazilian and American flags. There was a warm interchange of fraternal greetings. Dr. Penna speaking eloquently and in the warmest terms of the friendship entertained in the Brazilian republic for the great republic of the north. In reply, the American ambassador, Irving B. Dudley, warmly thanked the president for his allusions to the relations of friendship existing between the United States and Brazil, and for the magnificent reception which awaited the Americans on their arrival in this country.

Greeted by High Officials.

The American officers and other invited guests went to Petropolis early in the morning. They were met by the representatives of the president and by the American ambassador. Later at the breakfast they met among other high officials, the Brazilian minister of war, Admiral Alencar, the minister of war, Marshal Hermes da Fonseca, the chief of the naval station, and the members of the president's personal staff.

INDIAN FIGHTERS MEET.

Will March in Memorial Day Parade and Decorate Graves.

At a meeting held last evening at the office of the Lambert Paper company the Indian War Veterans planned to march with the civil war veterans on Memorial Day and to decorate the graves of their dead. It was reported that the graves of fifty-eight war veterans were in the city cemetery and had been well cared for.

Assistant Adjutant General C. Livingston read his annual report, which told of what had been done by the organization during the year. He also reported that in 1937 five Indian War Veterans passed away. A committee was appointed to draft resolutions on these deaths.

Commander O. P. Arnold suggested that an entertainment be given by the veterans and their families at an early date and a committee was appointed to arrange for such a gathering. An adjourned meeting will be held Feb. 18.
